

Explore the moon! Arago

- Arago alpha and Arago beta are lunar domes rising a few hundred feet above the surface. They are extinct volcanos.
- Crater Lamont is a ghost crater – a crater almost completely flooded with basaltic lava nearly 4 billion years ago.

